Held every five years in Taft, CA, Oildorado Days runs for 10 days and is the third largest tourism draw in Kern County. This year, we will be celebrating Taft's 100th Birthday and unveiling the largest bronze monument/statue on the West Coast dedicated to the Oil Workers of the Westside. Oildorado will take place October 15-24, 2010 and promises to be the best ever.

All activities on the weekends will take place at the Taft Rails to Trails and feature lots of open spaces and parking.
